

LIGHTS OUT HOUSTON

April 23, 2010

What: This program is part of a long-term strategy for Houston to become the Energy Conservation Capital. The goal is to establish a sustained reduction in the use of non-essential electricity in commercial buildings.

When: Friday, April 23rd, 2010 – 10:00 P.M. start through the weekend, capping an end to Earth Week.

Where: Downtown, but all greater Houston areas are strongly encouraged to participate in this worthwhile program.

Who: All commercial buildings.

How: This program will involve obtaining a pledge by those committed to implementing energy efficiency measures and operating procedures that will lead to a sustainable reduction in electricity consumption.

Why: We are committed to making Houston the Energy Conservation Capital.

For more information or to sign the LightsOut Houston Pledge, please visit
LightsOutHouston.com